

Memorial for Yuko

Contributed by David Leong
Thursday, 15 April 2010
Last Updated Thursday, 15 April 2010

Hello everyone,

We will be holding a memorial for Yuko on Saturday, May 8th from 2pm. Saya and I would like you to come.

Home of Truth
1300 Grand Street
Alameda, CA 94501-2505

We will be celebrating and remembering Yuko's life and strength. Yuko would have wanted us to dress in bright colors, as color had a special meaning and importance to her. Please feel free to.

Instead of flowers, we would appreciate contributions to Saya's college fund. There will be a box for donations at the venue. You can also send a check. Please write "For Saya" in the note field and mail to:

David Leong
1624 136th ave
San Leandro, CA 94578

Afterward, join us for food, companionship, and more stories. Please respond to let me know if you are coming.

Love, David and Saya

P.S. I discovered that Yuko was writing short notes to herself in the hospital. I was very moved by them, and would like to share several.

March 31:
Today I live to celebrate my life and existence.

April 3:
Today I live to appreciate all the love and support from my family and friends, doctors and nurses.

April 6:
Today I live to appreciate what I can. I can walk, do chores, do something that is helpful to others.

April 7:
Today I live appreciating friendship. Thank you for supporting me.